Chancellor Rosa provided the following statement at the start of the meeting:

I'd like to make a statement on behalf of the Board, the Department, and our State. We have been engaged for now for some time on the issue of looking at our students and the needs of our students. In that light, we have been engaged in many conversations. I know that both the Commissioner and members of this Board have talked about listening and being able to bring forth many competing at times concerns and issues.

Yesterday was particularly interesting in that we have acknowledged the uncertainty that we face as we move forth and we know that at the state we will continue to move forward with all our compassion, passion, and energy.
As we look at this issue as we did yesterday in terms of our assessments, we have had several conversations, some of them off-line and some of them on-line, in terms of this year. It is November and most of you know, we had to really look at many considerations, including we had conversations, as I shared yesterday, with our technical advisory committee, our TAC Committee. Hearing the many voices, we decided that for this year we would definitely and I want to state it again so there's no misunderstanding, that for this year we would continue with three full six-day testing as we did last year.

Our commissioner and this Board are absolutely open to continuing that discussion into the following year and thereby continuing the input of our TAC, the input of our constituents, the input of our great State and the members both parents, teachers and others that have a vested interest in the welfare of our children.

So, with that I'd like to continue the conversation, as Linda Darling-Hammond and Michael Cohen yesterday engaged us in a very thought-provoking conversation. We hope that all of us collectively can come together and keeping in mind not the interest of sometimes our organizations or our personal interests or sometimes interests that do not necessarily connect to the welfare of our children but at the end of the day we often ask the question, “what does this have to do with Children?”

Extensive spending controls continue for all funds. General Fund spending plans reflect the amounts appropriated in the 2016-17 enacted budget. General Fund accounts are in structural balance. Special Revenue accounts are all in structural balance on a current year basis and the accumulated negative balance in the Cultural Education Account is projected to remain at a negative $3.6 million. Federal Funds reflect current year plans for two year grant awards.

Completed Audits

The Department’s Internal Audit Workgroup reviewed fifty-four audits that are being presented to the Committee this month. All fifty-four were issued by the Office of the State Comptroller (OSC). Thirty-nine audits were of school districts, seven BOCES, two of the State Education Department, one of the State Education Department and the Department of Health, one college, two charter schools, and two providers of special education services.

The findings were in the areas of budget and financial reporting, capital construction, cash, claims processing, employee and contractor fingerprinting, information technology, non-resident student tuition, payroll/leave accruals, procurement, Reimbursable Cost Manual compliance, reserve funds, school fire and safety, school lunch program, segregation of duties, student immunizations, and Tuition Assistance Program (TAP).

Deputy Commissioner, Sharon Cates-Williams, gave a brief overview of the State Education Department – Oversight of School Fire Safety Compliance

- Auditors visited 25 schools and found many did not complete the required number of fire drills; they also found that emergency evacuation plans at six schools did not include procedures to address evacuation of students who have disabilities or special needs.
- Almost 50 percent of the total number of private schools did not submit required inspection reports for the 2015-16 school year.
- The Department’s electronic reporting system has not been verified for accuracy and lacks reporting capabilities to monitor school compliance.

The report’s recommendations focused primarily on SED officials developing a risk-based approach for verifying, by site visit or other means, whether information provided in fire inspection report is accurate and schools are complying with fire safety requirements.

SED officials agreed with the report’s recommendations and have indicated that they planned corrective action.
In addition, Deputy Commissioner, Sharon Cates-Williams, presented the SED Office of Audit Services Overview. MATTERS NOT REQUIRING BOARD ACTION

Update on the Regents Exam Workgroup [P-12 (D) 1] – the Committee was provided with an update on the Regents Exam Workgroup. The Workgroup has met multiple times since its creation, engaged in thoughtful discussions covering many different aspects of the Regents Exams, and drafted a set of recommendations that will be shared with the Board of Regents. The recommendations fall into five categories:
graduation requirements, college readiness, reporting of Regents Exam scores, appeals for Regents Exam results, and multiple curriculum pathways in mathematics. Jack Bierwirth, the Chair for the Workgroup, presented the recommendations and added that experts from Special Education, English language learners, and multi-language learners should be brought together to provide input into the draft package before final determinations are made.

Update on the Standards and Assessment Workgroup – the Committee was updated on the work of the Standards and Assessment Workgroup. Based on consistent recommendations from educators throughout the state substantive changes were made to the Grades 3-8 ELA and Math tests for this last year:

- The lengths of the tests were reduced such that they contained fewer test questions.
- The tests were made untimed to provide students further opportunity to demonstrate what they know and can do by allowing them to work at their own pace.
- The department released more test questions (75%) than ever before and earlier than ever before.
- And the parent score reports are more user-friendly and useful to parents

By maintaining the current testing system it allows the Department to measure student development over time.

Review of ESSA Regional Meetings

Discussion of High Concept Idea: Supporting All Students

Revised Submission Timeline and Next Steps
Important Caveat: A New Presidential Administration

- The draft negotiated rule-making for the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) was developed and issued for public comment under the Obama Administration.
- The timelines that the New York State Education Department (NYSED) are working from are those that are outlined in the draft rules.
- The new presidential administration, coupled with a Republican majority in the House and Senate, could lead to changes in the draft rules and in the timeline.
- NYSED will keep the Board of Regents updated on any changes that occur to the draft rules, or the submission timelines.
High Concept Ideas and Feedback from Regional State Plan Development Meetings

• The Department drafted a list of High Concept Ideas for the Board of Regents to consider including in the New York State ESSA plan and presented the High Concept Ideas to the Think Tank in October.

• The High Concept Ideas were presented to the Board of Regents in October and shared with stakeholders at 44 Regional ESSA State Plan Development Meetings.

• Participants in the Regional Meetings had the opportunity to both provide their feedback at the meetings and through a survey.
Summary of Participation in Regional Meetings

• Meetings were conducted between October 18 and November 2 in each district superintendent region, each of the Big 4 Large City School Districts, and each borough in New York City.

• A total of 2206 persons participated in 40 Regional meetings. (We are awaiting statistics for 2 meetings.)

• Each facilitator prepared a summary of the Regional Meeting.

• A total of 585 surveys were submitted by participants.

The action must be “equally rigorous” to USDE’s pre-approved sanctions (“assign a lower summative rating to the school,” “assign the lowest performance level on the State’s Academic Achievement indicator,” or “identify the school for targeted support and improvement”)?

Most Common Answers:

- Identify School for Targeted Support and Improvement: 35
- Require Plan for Communicating and Educating Parents about Assessments: 26
- Lower Summative Rating: 11

Note: Many respondents said no action should be taken when schools do not meet the participation requirements.

Organization of High Concept Ideas

High Concept Ideas are Organized in Accordance with USDE’s draft ESSA State Application Plan Template and ESSA Think Tank Workgroups:

– Supporting All Students
– Supporting English Language Learners
– Challenging Academic Standards and Assessments
– Accountability Measurements and Methodologies
– Supporting Excellent Educators
– Supports for Improving Schools
Each state may grant waivers to allow schools that have less than 40% poverty to operate as a Title I Schoolwide Program School. In doing so, the State Educational Agency (SEA) must take into account how a schoolwide program will best serve the needs of the students in the school in improving academic achievement and other factors.
High Concept Idea (HCI) #27

To ensure that all students have access to a well-rounded education, we will allow Title I schools that meet alternative criteria to implement a Schoolwide program, even if their poverty rates are below 40 percent.
Stakeholder Feedback on HCI #27

• Majority (61%) of survey respondents supported this HCI.
• 11% of survey respondents indicated that they were not familiar with this idea and therefore did not wish to provide a response.
• Summary feedback from the Regional Meetings also highlighted widespread support for this HCI.
Each state is required to support the collection and dissemination to local educational agencies (LEAs) and schools of effective parent and family engagement strategies.
To ensure that all students benefit from strong home-school partnerships, we will promote state, district, and school-level strategies for effectively engaging parents and other family members in their student’s education.
Stakeholder Feedback on HCI #28

• Strong majority (80%) of survey respondents supported this HCI.
• Summary feedback from the Regional Meetings also highlighted widespread support for this HCI.
Supporting All Students: ESSA Requirements

Each state is required to describe in its state plan how it will support LEAs in the accurate identification of English learners, children with disabilities, migratory children, and homeless children and youth.
To ensure that schools are meeting the diverse academic and non-academic needs of all students, we will support districts in strengthening early intervention strategies for English Learners; Students with Disabilities; Migrant Youth; Youth in Foster Care; Homeless Youth; Youth in Temporary Housing; Neglected, Delinquent, and At-Risk Students as defined in Title I, Part D; and other at-risk/underserved groups such as girls and LGBTQ Youth.
Stakeholder Feedback on HCI #29

• Majority (76%) of survey respondents supported this HCI.
• Summary feedback from the Regional Meetings also highlighted widespread support for this HCI.
Each SEA must describe in its state plan the system of performance management for implementation of State and LEA plans regarding supporting all students. The description must include information on the SEA’s review and approval of LEA plans, collection and use of data, monitoring, continuous improvement, and technical assistance.
To ensure that LEAs are developing and implementing plans that meet the academic and non-academic needs of all students, we will deploy a data-driven performance management system focused on differentiated technical assistance, progress monitoring, compliance review, and corrective action in support of continuous improvement of student outcomes.
Stakeholder Feedback on HCI #30

- 49% of survey respondents supported this HCI.
- 19% of survey respondents were neutral on this HCI.
- 12% of survey respondents indicated that they were not familiar with this idea and therefore did not wish to provide a response.
Supporting All Students: ESSA Requirements

Each SEA must describe in its state plan how it will develop and/or update existing policies and procedures to reduce barriers and ensure that all students have stable and consistent access to public school programming.
To ensure that Migrant Youth; Youth in Foster Care; Homeless Youth; Youth in Temporary Housing; and LBGTQ youth experience the maximum level of educational stability, we will develop and/or update policies, procedures, and guidance related to transportation, disputes and continuous enrollment practices.
Majority (70%) of survey respondents supported this HCI.

Summary feedback from the Regional Meetings also highlighted widespread support for this HCI.
Supporting All Students: ESSA Requirements

Each SEA that receives Title I Part D funding must submit, for approval by the Secretary, a plan for assisting in the transition of children and youth between correctional facilities and locally operated programs.
To ensure that students served in Neglected and Delinquent facilities graduate from high school and meet college- and career- readiness standards, the Department will work closely with the New York State Office of Children and Family Services, the New York State Department of Corrections and Community Supervision, and other agencies as appropriate, to develop a plan for requiring facilities to create a formal transition plan for each student. Additionally, the Department will require each LEA to identify a liaison to support the implementation and monitoring of those plans for all students who return to their district.
Stakeholder Feedback on HCI #32

• Majority (63%) of survey respondents supported this HCI.
• Summary feedback from the Regional Meetings also highlighted widespread support for this HCI.
New High Concept Ideas: Supporting All Students

• Non-SED members of the Supporting All Students Work Group have developed and shared additional High Concept Ideas for consideration by the Work Group.

• The additional HCIs will be distributed to all Work Group members for additional input and then shared broadly with the Think Tank.

New York State Education Department
ESSA State Plan High Concept Ideas

Challenging Academic Standards and Assessments

1. To ensure all schools are provided with accurate measurement of their students’ academic proficiencies, New York proposes to determine a State-designed rigorous action that will lead to improvements in the participation rate of schools that do not test 95 percent of their students (as opposed to an action designed by USDE).

2. To ensure all students have access to advanced coursework, New York develop procedures to allow districts to administer and accept multiple types of alternatives to state assessments at the secondary level.

3. To ensure all students have access to advanced coursework, New York will seek USDE approval to allow grade 7 and grade 8 students to take a Regents exam in mathematics in lieu of the grade level math test.

4. To ensure all students have equal access to learning and being able to demonstrate what they have learned, New York proposes to:
   a. Expand on the current set of testing accommodations that enable students with disabilities to participate in assessment programs on an equal basis with their nondisabled peers.
   b. Provide accessibility features that will enhance the test experience for all students, including the use of assistive technologies on computer-based tests as they are developed.

5. To ensure that the appropriate assessment is administered to English learners and they are not over tested, New York proposes to seek USDE approval to not require English learners to take multiple English skills tests (i.e., the state ELA test and the NYSESLAT) in a single year to satisfy the English Language Arts (ELA) assessment requirement.

6. To ensure that parents, teachers, principals, other school leaders, and administrators can address specific needs of students in relation to assessments, the State proposes to report assessment sub-scores in student-level reports provided to the parents and school.

Accountability Methodologies and Measurements

7. To ensure that schools focus on students with low performance in ELA and math, we will give schools “full credit” for students who are proficient (Level 3 and 4 scores on Grade 3-8 assessments and Levels 4 and 5 on Regents) and “partial credit” for students who are partially proficient (Level 2 scores on grade 3-8 assessments and Level 3 on Regents).

8. To ensure that students are able to meet assessment requirements for graduation, we will give schools credit for a student’s best score on state exams within four years of the student entering high school.

9. To incentivize schools to make efforts to have students reach advanced levels of proficiency, we will give “extra credit” to schools for students who are performing at the advanced or college-and career-readiness level.

10. To ensure that all schools value student proficiency, student growth, and improving student outcomes, we will hold schools accountable for percentages of students who are proficient and partially proficient in ELA and math; progress in increasing the percentage of proficient students over time; and growth of students in ELA and math from year to year.

11. To ensure that schools support students until they graduate, we will use 4-, 5-, and 6- year graduation rates to determine how well schools are doing in getting students to graduate.
12. To ensure that schools support students regardless of the subgroup that they are part of, we will hold schools accountable for closing gaps between groups of students.

13. To ensure that schools maximize opportunities for students, we will create a high school “Success Index” that gives partial credit for students who successfully complete the TASC through AHSEP programs and programs at the school, BOCES, or night school; and extra credit for students who earn a Regents diploma with advanced designation, CTE endorsements, or a Seal of Biliteracy.

14. To ensure that all students benefit from access to rigorous coursework, we will measure student participation in advanced coursework and measure the degree to which students score at specified levels on advanced high school assessments or earn college credit.

15. To ensure that students have access to a well-rounded curriculum, we will differentiate school performance by using student results on Grades 4 and 8 Science exams; Science and Social Studies Regents; and approved graduation pathway examinations.

16. To ensure that school districts have time to implement improvement strategies, we will create new lists of Comprehensive Support and Improvement Schools once every three years.

17. To ensure that schools engage students, we will hold schools accountable based on measures of chronic absenteeism and removal of students from instruction (e.g., suspensions).

Supporting Excellent Educators

18. To ensure that all students have equitable access to the most effective educators, regardless of their physical location, the Department will support school districts, BOCES and Institutes of Higher Education to develop comprehensive systems of educator support that address five common challenge areas: 1) preparation; 2) recruitment and hiring; 3) professional development and growth; 4) retention of effective teachers; and 5) extending the reach of the most effective educators to the most high-need students; and family and community engagement.

19. To ensure that educators entering the field from preparatory programs understand and are prepared to enter the profession, the Department will increase the minimum placement requirement of 100 hours, require that these placements include a full-time workload for an extended period (e.g., one semester), and require that field experience occur throughout the preparatory program rather than at the end of the program to allow prospective educators exposure to the rigors of the profession before committing to program completion.

20. To ensure that educators entering the field from preparatory programs understand the demands of the profession and are prepared to enter it, the Department will work to expand clinically rich preparatory programs.

21. To ensure that novice educators receive the supports that are necessary to persist in the profession, the Department will seek to revise the current first year mentoring requirement to require a full school year of formal mentoring.

22. To ensure that early career educators (both those new to teaching and to leadership) receive the supports that are necessary to persist in the teaching profession, the Department will develop and encourage districts/Boards of Cooperative Education Services (BOCES) to adopt induction models to support educators during the first three years of their educators’ careers.

23. To ensure that principals and other school leaders receive the supports that are necessary, the Department will use the optional 3% set-aside under Title IIA to develop programs that provide for systemic improvements for principals and other school leaders.
Supporting English Language Learners

24. To ensure that accountability for ELLs/MLLs beginning in their first year of enrollment is equitable and reliable, New York State will use student specific factors (such as prior schooling, level of English proficiency, and age) to determine whether a student takes either the ELA or NYSESLAT to set a baseline for accountability in Year 1, after which schools will be held accountable for a student's growth in language arts on that same assessment in Year 2 and beyond Year 2.

25. To ensure that language arts assessments of ELLs/MLLs are equitable and accurate, New York State will seek funding to develop and implement high quality native/home language arts assessments aligned to standards and curricula.

26. To ensure that ELLs/MLLs have enough time and English instruction to understand coursework, New York State ELLs/MLLs will be expected to become English proficient in three to six years, and this timeline should be extended based on factors like age, prior amount of schooling, and the level of proficiency at entry.

Supporting All Students

27. To ensure that all students have access to a well-rounded education, we will allow Title I schools that meet alternative criteria to implement a Schoolwide program, even if their poverty rates are below 40 percent.

28. To ensure that all students benefit from strong home-school partnerships, we will promote state, district, and school-level strategies for effectively engaging parents and other family members in their student’s education.

29. To ensure that schools are meeting the diverse academic and non-academic needs of all students, we will support districts in strengthening early intervention strategies for English Learners; Students with Disabilities; Migrant Youth; Youth in Foster Care; Homeless Youth; Youth in Temporary Housing; Neglected, Delinquent, and At-Risk Students as defined in Title I, Part D; and other at-risk/underserved groups such as girls and LGBTQ Youth.

30. To ensure that LEAs are developing and implementing plans that meet the academic and non-academic needs of all students, we will deploy a data-driven performance management system focused on differentiated technical assistance, progress monitoring, compliance review, and corrective action in support of continuous improvement of student outcomes.

31. To ensure that Migrant Youth; Youth in Foster Care; Homeless Youth; Youth in Temporary Housing; and LBGTQ youth experience the maximum level of educational stability, we will develop and/or update policies, procedures, and guidance related to transportation, disputes and continuous enrollment practices.

32. To ensure that students served in Neglected and Delinquent facilities graduate from high school and meet college- and career-readiness standards, the Department will work closely with the New York State Office of Children and Family Services, the New York State Department of Corrections and Community Supervision, and other agencies as appropriate, to develop a plan for requiring facilities to create a formal transition plan for each student. Additionally the Department will require each LEA to identify a liaison to support the implementation and monitoring of those plans for all students who return to their district.

Support and Improvement For Schools

33. To ensure that school improvement plans are tailored to the identified needs of schools, we will require low-performing schools to complete a diagnostic needs assessment that looks at whole school practices and use the results as the basis for school improvement plans.
34. To ensure that plans are driving improvement, schools identified as low-performing will conduct an annual review and develop annual plans in collaboration with the families and school community.

35. To ensure that schools identified as Comprehensive are able to address the specific areas that are contributing to their identification status, Comprehensive schools will have some flexibility in the school reform model they pursue.

36. To ensure that schools and districts identified as low performing have the flexibility to address their specific needs, we will not pursue the Direct Service Set Asides option contained in ESSA.

The Department is also requesting assistance from the public in answering these additional questions:

37. What indicators can the Department use to hold schools accountable for student engagement?

38. Should the Department use part of its 5% Title II set-aside for competitive grants designed to improve the quality of teaching and learning in New York State?

39. Should the Department require LEAs, in their annual Title IIA applications, to describe how funds will be used to address gaps in equitable access to effective educators?

40. Should Title I schools that are identified as Comprehensive (lowest 5%) be required to offer parents the opportunity to transfer their children to another public school in the district, or should it be an option for interested districts?

41. What nationally recognized high school assessments would be appropriate to use in place of the Regents Exams?

42. What testing accommodations should NYSED make available for students with disabilities beyond those already provided?

43. What should be included in New York’s State-designed action for schools that do not test 95 percent of their students? The action must be “equally rigorous” to USDE’s pre-approved sanctions (“assign a lower summative rating to the school,” “assign the lowest performance level on the State’s Academic Achievement indicator,” or “identify the school for targeted support and improvement”)?
ESSA and Equity
Opportunities to Close the Opportunity Gap
The Four Pillars of Opportunity
Bridging Equity Through the Elementary and Secondary School Act

Factory Model
Relies on outdated rote thinking and memorization

21st-Century Model
Offers deeper learning and higher-order thinking

1. High-Quality Curriculum & Assessment
2. Multiple Measures of Success
3. Adequate, Equitable Resources
4. Proven Interventions
I. Higher Order Skills for All Students

- States are expected to adopt challenging Academic Standards for all students
- Assessments must measure “higher order thinking skills and understanding”
- These may include “portfolios, projects or extended-performance tasks”
- Scores may be based on multiple assessments during the course of the academic year rather than a single summative assessment.
When teachers use and score performance assessments, they can develop a deeper understanding of academic standards and of student learning, which translates into more effective teaching and thereby enhances equity.
II. Equity Measures

- Academic Achievement
- Academic Growth
- Graduation Rates (4 year and, at state discretion, extended)
- English language proficiency gains
- Indicators of “school quality” or “student success”
  -- School climate
  -- Student inclusion (reduction of suspension/expulsion)
  -- Opportunities to learn
States can take the initiative to design systems that capture more information about the factors that matter most for student success and that provide the most useful incentives for school improvement.

III. Resource Equity

- Equitable Access to Effective, Experienced, In-Field Teachers
- Reporting Per Pupil School Expenditures by Source & Purpose
- State Plans Must Describe How Equity Will be Achieved and how school zones will avoid concentrations of poverty
- Comparability
- Maintenance of Effort
- Supplement not Supplant
- Incentives for Districts that Use Weighted Student Formulas
- Required Resource Audit for Schools Identified for Assistance
A path toward a more equitable future has been forged by a number of states and districts that have initiated more equitable funding strategies based on students’ needs.
ESSA also authorizes the Student Support and Academic Enrichment Grant to help states and local school districts address opportunity gaps by targeting additional funding to better serve disadvantaged students.
Student Support and Academic Enrichment Grants

- Safe and Healthy Students
- Well-Rounded Curriculum
- Effective Use of Technology

A critical component of the improvement funding under ESSA is the requirement that state and local districts report resource inequities for schools receiving this funding and support. This provision can help drive more equitable distribution of state and local dollars, and allow for meaningful community and stakeholder monitoring.
IV. Equity Strategies and Evidence-Based Interventions

- Early Childhood Education
- Community Schools
- Integration and School Diversity
- Redesigning Schools
- Productive Literacy and Numeracy Curricula
- High-Quality Professional Development
This is an opportunity for states and districts to examine root causes of inequities across and within both districts and schools, and develop plans for addressing these issues.
College and Career Readiness, Equity & ESSA
Michael Cohen, President, Achieve
November 14, 2016
Presentation to New York Board of Regents
Defining “College and Career Ready”

All students should graduate from high school ready for college, careers and life, prepared to pursue the future of their choosing. By 2020, 65% of all jobs, and 92% of traditional STEM jobs, will require postsecondary education and training. College- and career-ready (CCR) graduates should be able to enter and succeed in entry-level postsecondary courses without the need for remediation and specifically should have:

- Mastery of rigorous knowledge and skills in core academic disciplines including English Language Arts/Literacy, Mathematics, History, Civics, Science, Art and Music. Content knowledge and skills in Mathematics and in English Language Arts/literacy are foundational to the study of all other disciplines and high school graduates are often asked to demonstrate competency in these subjects before they can begin further study (at two-and four-year colleges), enter certain job training/apprenticeship programs or pursue the military career of their choice.

- The skills and dispositions necessary to be successful in charting their postsecondary path. Many of the skills a CCR graduate has are obtained through academics. The skills most demanded by colleges and employers are, by design, inherent in rigorous K-12 expectations — the ability of students to communicate effectively (both verbally and in written communications), to solve problems, to think critically and develop informed arguments, and to analyze information and data. Collaborating, communicating and presenting information and using research to make informed judgments are among the critical skills that are developed through academics. Emerging research shows that there are essential dispositions, such as having an academic mindset, initiative, adaptability and resilience, which also impact postsecondary success.

- Successfully participated in postsecondary opportunities through advanced coursework (AP, IB, dual enrollment) as well as career and technical education, work-based learning and other opportunities for exploring interests, aptitudes and goals so that graduates can successfully navigate pathways that connect education and employment after high school.
Needed: State Leadership For College and Career Readiness

• Too many NY students leave high school poorly prepared for college and career.
  – Focus today on academic preparation
  – Inequity: There are significant “preparation gaps” based on race, ethnicity and income

• State policies can help improve preparation and close gaps....but not as NY has designed them.

• ESSA can provide powerful leverage, if you approach it thoughtfully
  – Start with clear state priorities, not federal requirements
  – Follow the $

State Policies Set Expectations: Their Content and Design Matter

• College and Career Ready Standards
• High School Graduation Requirements
• Assessments
• Performance Indicators
College and Career Ready Standards

• Achieve Review of 2016 Draft NYS ELA and Mathematics Learning Standards
  – Math Standards generally rigorous, coherent and focused; some revisions needed
    • But students can earn a diploma without taking a course that teaches the advanced math, presenting preparation and equity concerns
  – ELA standards have significant strengths and a major weakness – Lack of direction with regard to complexity of texts students should read, which raises preparation concerns and equity issues
High School Graduation Requirements (course-taking)

- New York offers at least 9 different diploma’s that are available to all students:
  - Regents
  - Regents (through appeal)
  - Regents with Honors
  - Regents with Advanced Designation
  - Regents with Advanced Designation ...Mastery in Math
  - Regents with Advanced Designation ...Mastery in Science
  - Regents with Advanced Designation with Honors
  - Local Diploma (through Appeal)
  - Local Diploma, Regents Diploma, Regents Diploma with Advanced Designation (with or without Honors), with a Career and Technical Education Endorsement
High School Graduation Requirements (course-taking)

• Transparency Matters
  – Where does each diploma lead?
  – Which are passports to college and career...and which are tickets to nowhere?
  – How do students and parents know?

• Design Matters
  – Mandatory
  – Default
  – Opt-in

High School Assessments

• Which Regents Exams measure the knowledge and skills necessary for success in college-level courses? Will SUNY and CUNY honor those results?
  – There is a difference between predicting success and measuring the skills necessary for success

• What is rationale for considering nationally recognized assessments? How do they help improve preparation?

Leveraging ESSA

• Start with state priorities for improvement (including stakeholder input for ESSA and state performance data) not just federal requirements.
• Incorporate priorities into state’s consolidated application.
• Determine evidence-based strategies for local and state actions to meet performance goals tied to priorities.
• Determine the capacity building (e.g, professional development, cross district networks, data and IT systems) needed to implement the strategies at state and local levels.
• Identify ESSA $ that can support the strategies and build capacity for continuous improvement. NY receives approximately $1.6 billion under ESSA.
Leveraging ESSA to Support College and Career Readiness

• Possible priority: Improving Access to and Success in Advanced Courses

• Examples of evidence-based strategies:
  – Make Regents Advanced Diploma default option
  – District-led, data-driven improvements in graduation rates and completion of CCR courses (Fresno Unified School District)
  – Building Assets-Reducing Risk (BARR) program focused on transition from middle school to high school
Leveraging ESSA
Improving Access to and Success in Advanced Courses

• Examples of needed capacity:
  – Local data systems – improved monitoring and reporting of course availability, participation and success
  – Regular instruction on social-emotional skills
  – Teacher teams + time for weekly reviews of each student’s progress
  – Support for AP courses/exams
Leveraging ESSA
Improving Access to and Success in Advanced Courses

• Potential sources of ESSA funds:
  – Title I School Improvement funds (targeted to low performing schools)
  – State set-aside of Title I funds for direct student services
  – Title I grants to LEAs for schoolwide projects
  – Title II grants to LEAs for PD
  – Title IV State Activities to increase enrollment in advanced courses/subsidize exam fees
  – Title IV grants to LEA’s to support access to well-rounded education
Key Action Steps

- Adopt rigorous CCR standards for all students
- Increase transparency about diploma options and make Regents Diploma with Advanced Designation the default option
- Use high school assessment results to inform student, parents and postsecondary institutions if students are on track for college level courses
- Improve transparency about CCR results
- Strategically leverage ESSA
