STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

ADULT CAREER AND CONTINUING EDUCATION SERVICES (ACCES)

Your Adult Career and Continuing Education Services (ACCES) Committee held a meeting on November 6, 2018. All members were present, except for Regent Mead and Regent Norwood, who were excused.
MATTERS NOT REQUIRING BOARD ACTION

2019 Non-State Aid Budget and Legislative Priorities – The Committee reviewed the updated proposal of the 2019 Non-State Aid budget priorities for the Office of ACCES. These priorities include: a $3 million request to fund the Bridge to College and Careers Pilot Program; a $5 million request for Independent Living Services; and, a $15 million request for Enhancing Supports and Services for Postsecondary Success of Students with Disabilities. The committee also reviewed the updated proposal for the 2019 Legislative Priorities for the Office of ACCES which include Enhancing Educational Supports for Students with Disabilities pursuing Post-Secondary Study. It was recommended that these priorities move forward to full Board in December for approval.

CULTURAL EDUCATION

Your Committee on Cultural Education had its scheduled meeting on November 6, 2018. Regent Roger Tilles and Regent Judith Johnson, Co-Chairs of the Cultural Education Committee, submitted the following written report.

In attendance were committee members: Regent Tilles, Co-Chair, Regent Johnson, Co-Chair, Regent Cea, Regent Cottrell and Regent Ouderkirk. Regents, in addition to Cultural Education Committee Members, in attendance were: Chancellor Rosa, Vice Chancellor Brown, Regent Young, Regent Cashin, Regent Collins, Regent Chin, Regent Hakanson, Regent Reyes, and Regent Mittler. Also in attendance were Commissioner Elia, Executive Deputy Commissioner Berlin, Senior Deputy Commissioner for Educational Policy Jhone Ebert, and Counsel and Deputy Commissioner for Legal Affairs Alison Bianchi.

ITEMS FOR DISCUSSION

Co-Chair’s Remarks: Regent Tilles and Regent Johnson welcomed everyone. Regent Tilles indicated the Museum Regents Advisory Council would be meeting later today and the focus will be on P-20 education initiatives. Regent Tilles then introduced Deputy Commissioner Mark Schaming. Deputy Commissioner Schaming provided a brief report on Office of Cultural Education news and activities:

- More than 2.4 million students and children participated in the State Library’s summer reading program, Summer Reading at New York Libraries. This is an increase of approximately 230,000 participants over last year. Also, more than 113,000 books were read and nearly 1.5 million minutes of reading were logged within the myON platform, an e-book platform the State Education Department partnered with for the 2018 summer reading program.

- Artwork from the State Museum’s contemporary Native American art collection is currently on view at the Samuel Dorsky Museum of Art at SUNY New Paltz in the

- In October, staff from SED’s P-12 and Higher Education program areas visited the Cultural Education Center for a staff retreat. During the retreat they toured Museum collections on the 3rd floor and Library and Archives collections on the 11th floor to get a behind-the-scenes look at what we do in OCE. After the tour, OCE and P-20 staff discussed how we currently work together between program areas and explored new opportunities for collaborations moving forward.

British Colonial Documents from the Hudson Valley [CE (D) 1]

State Archivist Tom Ruller reported on the State Archives collection of British colonial documents from the Hudson Valley as well as a project to preserve and make these records available for the first time since 1911. New York's Hudson Valley formed an important population center in the country's colonial period. The region was home to a number of important communities reflecting the broadest spectrum of New York's colonial people and economies. Materials documenting this important period, between the Dutch and the new American republic, were destroyed or damaged in the 1911 Capitol fire. The State Archives has recently completed a multi-year project to conserve, digitize and make these materials available for research.

State Museum’s Recent Acquisitions for the History Collection [CE (D) 2]

State Museum Chief Curator of History Jennifer Lemak presented an overview of the new acquisitions in the History Collections of the New York State Museum as well as a summary of museum history artifacts currently on loan to cultural education institutions across the nation.

2019 Non-State Aid Budget and Legislative Priorities [CE (D) 3]

Executive Deputy Commissioner Beth Berlin presented proposals for the Board’s 2019 Non-State Aid budget and legislative priorities that relate to the Office of Cultural Education. The proposals include: increase funding by $11 million for the State Aid for Public Library Construction; provide $5 million in funding for the Museum Education Act (legislation passed both houses in 2018, but funding was not included in the Enacted Budget); and provide $5 million for expanding two public broadcasting program – Enterprise America and GPS for Success – statewide to each public television station.

[P-12 (A) 3]

Your Committee recommends that subdivision (i) of section 154-2.3 of Commissioner's Regulations be amended, effective November 6, 2018, in order to alleviate the difficulty that districts with fewer than 30 English Language Learners may have in meeting the requirement that bilingual education and English as a New Language classes limit enrollment to a maximum of two contiguous grades, by allowing such districts to apply for a waiver on an annual basis to expand the maximum allowable grade span to three contiguous grades beginning in the 2018-2019 school year. The motion carried. Regent Reyes abstained.
MOTION FOR ACTION BY FULL BOARD

Madam Chancellor and Colleagues: Your P-12 Education Committee recommends, and we move, that the Board of Regents act affirmatively upon each recommendation in the written report of the Committee’s deliberations at its meeting on November 6, 2018, copies of which have been distributed to each Regent.

MATTERS NOT REQUIRING BOARD ACTION

Senior Deputy Commissioner’s Report – Senior Deputy Commissioner Jhone Ebert updated the Committee on the following Arts initiatives.

Jennifer Childress – Jennifer Childress is the new Arts Associate in the Office of Curriculum and Instruction. Jennifer has reached out to multiple groups and has re-established relationships with the Arts Coalition, the S/CDN network, and the NYS PTA to name a few. Through this outreach, she has been able to determine the status of the arts standards’ professional development progress and make plans for next steps, including the creation of a draft three-year Arts Standards Roadmap.

Arts Assessment Pathway – Progress has been made on the development of the Individual Arts Assessment Pathway (IAAP). A general structure for a local curriculum-based portfolio/performance assessment draft has been developed, along with a timeline and preliminary budget. Work is continuing on the type of items and scoring mechanisms that will be needed to make sure the IAAP is valid, reliable, and fair.

2019 Non-State Aid Budget and Legislative Priorities [P-12 (D) 1] – the Committee reviewed and discussed updated non-State Aid budget and legislative proposals advanced during the 2018 budget cycle and legislative session previously discussed in October. Discussion focused on the budget and legislative priorities as a result of the Early Childhood Work Group’s Blue Ribbon Committee recommendations. One-page descriptions of each of the budget and legislative requests will be prepared and will come before the full Board in December for approval.

Conclusions: Causes for Concern

• School remains a hostile place for many LGBTQ students and more work needs to be done to ensure safe and affirming schools for all.

• Overall, improvements that we have been seeing may be somewhat stalled.

• Gender-related topics have increased visibility, prove challenging for schools.
