On June 24, 2014, the Board of Regents approved and chartered the Rosalyn Yalow Charter School (or the “School”), to be located in the New York City School District CSD 10. The School will open for instruction on September 1, 2015, serving 202 students in kindergarten and first grade.

Pursuant to New York Education Law §2853(3)(e) the School submitted written requests dated May 21, 2014 and July 28, 2014 to the New York City Department of Education (NYC DOE) requesting co-location space. The NYC DOE responded that it did not have appropriate space. The school filed an appeal to the Commissioner of Education, and on December 19, 2014, the Commissioner ordered the NYC DOE to comply with New York Education Law § 2853(3)(e)(5). This led the school to seek space that would accommodate the school.

The School’s Trustees request that the Board of Regents approve a material revision to its charter to allow the School to change the district of location for the School to New York CSD 9; specifically to private space obtained by the School located at 116 East 169th Street, in the Bronx. The proposed lease space is approximately 28,000 square feet and has been renovated to house a charter school.

The School intends to utilize fourteen classrooms, nine office spaces, a large “cafetorium” with a prep kitchen, and other support spaces. Additionally the owner of the building has offered, without obligation, the use of two large multifunction rooms to be used from time to time as needed. There is a fenced parking area large enough for 30 cars which can be reconfigured to provide an outdoor play space for the students. The facility is a short walk from mass transit options.

Summary of Public Comment

As required by the Charter School Act, the New York City Department of Education held a public hearing about the proposed relocation on Monday, June 1, 2015. One comment in support was recorded, along with one comment in opposition.

Recommendation

VOTED: That the Board of Regents finds that: (1) the charter school meets the requirements set out in Article 56 of the Education Law, and all other applicable laws, rules and regulations; (2) the charter school can demonstrate the ability to operate in an educationally and fiscally sound manner; (3) granting the request to revise the charter is likely to improve student learning and achievement and materially further the purposes set out in subdivision two of section twenty-eight hundred fifty of Article 56 of the Education Law; and (4) granting the request to revise the charter would have a significant educational benefit to the students expected to attend the charter school, and the Board of Regents therefore approves the charter revision for Rosalyn Yalow Charter School and amends the provisional charter accordingly.

Timetable for Implementation

The Regents action for Rosalyn Yalow Charter School will become effective immediately.
