HISTORY

Jennifer Lemak, Chief Curator of History

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, in Canajohary, Montgomery County, on the 3d day of June, 1805, a Negro Man, named HARRY; between five feet four and eight inches high, yellow complexion, ^{is about 28 years of age} has a scar across his right cheek, middling straight built, and speaks Dutch and English. It is supposed he is in New-England. Whoever will apprehend the said Negro, and confine him in goal, either at Albany, Troy or Johnstown, shall have the above reward; ~~or if any person will confine him in any goal, and give information to the subscriber, he shall receive Thirty Dollars.~~

JOHN DIEFENDORFF.

CANAJOHARY, March, 1806.

ALBANY.—PRINTED BY ROBERT PACKARD.

I will pay the above reward if any person delivers said Negro Harry to me in subordination
