

TO: The Honorable the Members of the Board of Regents
FROM: Ken Slentz
SUBJECT: Emergency Adoption of Proposed Amendment of Sections 200.7 and 200.15 of the Regulations of the Commissioner of Education Relating to Chapter 501 of the Laws of 2012 ("Protection of People with Special Needs Act")

DATE: November 8, 2013

AUTHORIZATION(S):

SUMMARY

Issue for Decision (Consent Agenda)

Should the Board of Regents adopt as an emergency action the proposed amendment of sections 200.7 and 200.15 of the Regulations of the Commissioner of Education to conform State regulations to Chapter 501 of the Laws of 2012 ("Protection of People with Special Needs Act")?

Reason(s) for Consideration

Required by Statute (L. 2012, Ch. 501).

Proposed Handling

The proposed amendment is submitted to the Full Board for adoption as an emergency rule at its November meeting. A statement of the facts and circumstances which necessitate emergency action is attached.

Procedural History

The proposed amendment was adopted as an emergency rule at the June Regents meeting, effective June 30, 2013. A Notice of Emergency Adoption and Proposed Rule Making was published in the State Register on July 10, 2013. The proposed amendment was readopted as an emergency action at the September Regents meeting, effective September 23, 2013. Because the September emergency rule will expire on November 21, 2013, a third emergency action is necessary in order to ensure that the emergency rule remains continuously in effect until it can be adopted as a permanent rule. A copy of the proposed amendment is attached. Supporting materials are available upon request from the Secretary to the Board of Regents.

Background Information

The purpose of the proposed amendment is to conform State regulations to Chapter 501 of the Laws of 2012, which enacted into law various provisions of legislation for the protection of people with special needs, including revisions to sections 4212, 4314, 4358 and 4403 of Education Law. Chapter 501, which became effective June 30, 2013, established a new Justice Center for the Protection of People with Special Needs and creates uniform safeguards for vulnerable persons in facilities or provider agencies that are operated, certified, or licensed by State agencies in State-operated and licensed facilities, including residential schools under the State Education Department's (SED) oversight, to protect them against abuse, neglect and other conduct that may jeopardize their health, safety and welfare. The law also established requirements for the notification and investigation of allegations of abuse and neglect of individuals placed in residential schools or facilities located outside of New York State (NYS).

The State Education Department has continued to work closely with the Justice Center and the other State Oversight Agencies on implementing the provisions of Chapter 501 since it became effective June 30, 2013. It was initially anticipated that the proposed rule would be presented to the Board of Regents for adoption as a permanent rule at the November Regents meeting. However, additional time is needed to determine whether any revisions should be made to the proposed rule based on additional clarification and/or decisions that the Justice Center may be providing in the coming months. This emergency rule does not include any changes from the emergency rule adopted by the Board in September.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the Board of Regents take the following action:

VOTED: That paragraphs (3) and (6) of subdivision (b) of section 200.7 and section 200.15 of the Regulations of the Commissioner be amended as submitted, effective November 22, 2013, as an emergency action upon a finding by the Board of Regents that such action is necessary for the preservation of the general welfare in order to ensure that the emergency rule adopted at the June 16-17, 2013 Regents meeting, and readopted at the September 2013 Regents meeting, remains continuously in effect until the effective date of its adoption as a permanent rule at a subsequent Regents meeting, and thereby ensure that students attending residential schools are protected against abuse, neglect and significant incidents that may jeopardize their health, safety and welfare.

Timetable for Implementation

The June emergency rule became effective on June 30, 2013 and expired on September 22, 2013. The September emergency rule became effective on September 23, 2013 and will expire on November 21, 2013. If adopted at the November Regents meeting, the emergency rule will become effective on November 22, 2013 for an additional 60-day period and expire on January 20, 2014.

It is anticipated that the proposed rule will be presented at the January 13-14, 2014 Regents meeting for either permanent adoption if no substantial revisions are necessary, or for another emergency adoption if substantial revisions must be made to the proposed rule based on additional clarification and/or decisions that the Justice Center may be providing in the coming months.

In the event it is determined that substantial revisions must be made to the proposed rule, the revised rule cannot be presented for permanent adoption until the February 10-11, 2014 Regents meeting or later, after publication of the proposed revised rule in the State Register and expiration of the 30-day public comment period for revised rules established by the State Administrative Procedure Act.

STATEMENT OF FACTS AND CIRCUMSTANCES WHICH NECESSITATE EMERGENCY ACTION

The proposed amendment is necessary to conform the Commissioner's Regulations to Chapter 501 of the Laws of 2012 and the regulations, guidelines and procedures established by the Justice Center, which became effective June 30, 2013.

The proposed amendment was adopted as an emergency rule at the June 16-17, 2013 Regents meeting, effective June 30, 2013. A Notice of Emergency Adoption and Proposed Rule Making was published in the State Register on July 10, 2013. The June emergency rule expired on September 22, 2013. The proposed amendment was re-adopted as an emergency rule at the September 16-17, 2013 Regents meeting, effective September 23, 2013.

The State Education Department has continued to work closely with the Justice Center and the other State Oversight Agencies on implementing the provisions of Chapter 501 since it became effective June 30, 2013. It was initially anticipated that the proposed rule would be presented to the Board of Regents for adoption as a permanent rule at their November 17-18, 2013 meeting. However, additional time is needed to determine whether any revisions should be made to the proposed rule based on any further clarification and/or decisions that the Justice Center may be providing in the coming months.

Pursuant to SAPA section 202(6)(b), the September 2013 emergency adoption will expire on November 21, 2013 (sixty days after the date of its filing with the Department of State on September 23, 2013). Therefore, a third emergency action is necessary for the preservation of the general welfare in order to ensure that the emergency rule adopted at the June 2013 Regents meeting, and readopted at the September 2013 Regents meeting, remains continuously in effect until the effective date of its adoption as a permanent rule at a subsequent Regents meeting, and thereby ensure that students attending residential schools are protected against abuse, neglect and significant incidents that may jeopardize their health, safety and welfare.

It is anticipated that the proposed rule will be presented at the January 13-14, 2014 Regents meeting for either permanent adoption if no substantial revisions are necessary, or for another emergency adoption if substantial revisions must be made to the proposed rule based on further clarification and/or decisions that the Justice Center may be providing in the coming months.

In the event it is determined that substantial revisions must be made to the proposed rule, the revised rule cannot be presented for permanent adoption until the February 10-11, 2014 Regents meeting or later, after publication of the proposed revised rule in the State Register and expiration of the 30-day public comment period for revised rules established by the State Administrative Procedure Act.

(ii) the names, addresses and telephone numbers of references who can verify the applicant's employment history, work record and qualifications;

(viii) for in-State residential schools, other information required by the Justice Center to determine whether the applicant is included on the staff exclusion list.

(2) An in-state residential school shall check the staff exclusion list, pursuant to procedures developed by the Justice Center, before determining whether to hire or otherwise allow any person as an employee, administrator, consultant, intern, volunteer or contractor to have regular and substantial contact with a student. Consistent with applicable collective bargaining agreements, if a person is listed on the staff exclusion list, the school shall not hire such a person to have regular and substantial contact with a student. If the result of that inquiry is that the person about whom the inquiry is made is not on the staff exclusion list, the school shall make an inquiry of the Statewide Central Register of Child Abuse and Maltreatment pursuant to section 424-a of the Social Services Law.

(3) For in-state residential schools, consistent with existing collective bargaining agreements and applicable provisions of the Civil Service Law, a custodian shall be subject to immediate termination if he or she is convicted of any crime as defined in subdivision six of section 10.00 of the Penal Law that relates directly to the abuse or neglect of a student, or is placed on the staff exclusion list. Nothing in this paragraph shall diminish the rights or remedies otherwise available under law, regulation or appropriate collective bargaining agreements of any residential school with respect to the termination or discipline of employees.

[(c)] (d) Personnel qualifications...

[(d)] (e) Staff supervision. Schools governed by this section shall develop written procedures for the supervision of employees and volunteers who have the potential for contact with students in residential care. Such procedures shall [be submitted for review and approval within a time frame established by the commissioner and shall] include, but need not be limited to, the following:

If it is discovered that the subject of a report has one or more substantiated reports of abuse or neglect or indicated reports of child abuse or maltreatment in the statewide central register of child abuse and maltreatment and an investigation was or investigations were conducted by a different state agency, or a local child protective service, contact all known agencies or services who investigated such previous report or reports to obtain information on such reports in accordance with section four hundred ninety-six of Social Services Law;
