Background Information

Currently, athletic training is a certified profession (licensure not required) with a limited scope of practice. However, the profession of athletic training and its education have evolved significantly during the past 30 years. Since 2004, athletic training education has been standardized and athletic trainers (ATs) must complete a university accredited program and pass a national examination to become nationally credentialed. These athletic training education programs include education on recognizing and providing immediate care for concussions.

Due to the limited scope of practice under the present law, there are few students who graduate from the 11 accredited athletic training programs in New York who choose to work within the State.

To address this situation, Chapter 733 of the Laws of 2023 (Chapter 733) was signed into law, which becomes effective December 22, 2025.<sup>1</sup> Chapter 733's provisions will make New York's athletic training profession stronger by ensuring that ATs can utilize their comprehensive training in this State, which will improve New Yorkers' access to qualified, licensed professionals. It is the Department's hope that this update to the Education Law to reflect the evolution of this profession will encourage more ATs to practice within the State.

Chapter 733 updates the practice of ATs from a credentialed to licensed profession and updates and expands the current scope of practice of ATs by amending the definition of "athletic trainer"<sup>2</sup> to:

- expand the list of authorized practice settings for the profession beyond schools and professional athletic organizations to include amateur athletic organizations, non-profit athletic organizations, dance organizations, military academies and facilities of the United States, fire training programs or academies, and police training schools and academies;
- provide that an "athletic trainer may also, under the supervision of a physician in a health care organization or a physician's private practice, carry out

<sup>1</sup> Chapter 733 also establishes mandatory continuing education requirements for licensed ATs by adding a new Section 8356-at to the Education Law, which is effective December 22, 2028.

<sup>2</sup> Education Law §8351 currently defines "athletic trainer" as "any person who is duly certified in accordance with this article to perform athletic training under the supervision of a physician and limits his or her practice to secondary schools, institutions of postsecondary education, professional athletic organizations, or a person who, under the supervision of a physician, carries out comparable functions on orthopedic athletic injuries, excluding spinal cord injuries, in a health care organization. Supervision of an athletic trainer by a physician shall be continuous but shall not be construed as requiring the physical presence of the supervising physician at the time and place where such services are performed. The scope of work described herein shall not be construed as authorizing the reconditioning of neurologic injuries, conditions or disease."

comparable functions on orthopedic athletic injuries.” This provision currently excludes spinal cord injuries; Chapter 733 removes this exclusion; and

- modify an exception to the current limitation that ATs’ scope of work does not include the reconditioning of neurologic injuries, conditions or disease. The definition now states that ATs’ scope of work does not include the management and treatment of neurological injuries, conditions, or diseases, except for initial evaluation and triage of emergency neurological conditions. This reflects ATs’ current practice of providing immediate care for concussions.

To ensure public safety, the supervision requirements for athletic trainers in Education Law §8351 now require that such supervision include a signed written agreement or protocol created collaboratively between the supervising physician and licensed athletic trainer.

Chapter 733 also updates the definition of the practice of athletic training in Education Law §8352 to align with current practice. The practice of AT is now defined as:

- (1) The prevention, recognition, examination, evaluation, assessment, management, treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries;
- (2) The recognition of illness and referral to the appropriate medical professional with implementation of treatment pursuant to physician’s orders;
- (3) Instruction to coaches, athletes, parents, medical personnel, and communities in the area of care and prevention of athletic injuries; and
- (4) The use of clinically appropriate therapeutic modalities and techniques, including the use of:
  - (a) Physical, chemical, and mechanical means including the use of heat, cold, light, air, water, sound, electricity, massage, mobilization as it relates to athletic training, including non-thrust mobilization, and exercise; and
  - (b) Appropriate preventative and supportive devices and temporary splinting or bracing.

Additionally, Chapter 733 amends the Education Law by:

- creating the new legally protected title of “licensed athletic trainer” and eliminating the prior protected title of “certified athletic trainer”;
- adding the requirement that applicants must be of good moral character, as determined by the department, in order to be licensed as an athletic trainer;
- setting forth person(s) who are exempt from licensure;
- setting forth mandatory continuing education requirements;
- permitting the department to issue limited permits for athletic training; and

- providing that any person who is certified as an AT on its December 22, 2025 effective date will be licensed as an AT without meeting any additional requirements.

Chapter 733 also amends Education Law §6507(3) to add athletic trainers to the list of professions that are required to take training regarding child abuse and maltreatment reporting, and Education Law §6505-b to add athletic trainers to the list of professions required to take training regarding infection control practices.

Proposed Amendment

The proposed amendment of the Commissioner's regulations implements the provisions of Chapter 733 by:

- Repealing and adding a new section 52.27 to update the registration of curricula requirements for registered programs that lead to licensure as an AT;
- Amending section 79-7.1 to remove the definition of certification;
- Amending sections 79-7.2 regarding education requirements, section 79-7.3 regarding experience requirements, and section 79-7.4 regarding examination requirements to update such requirements for licensure and eliminate references to "certification" and replacing them with "licensure".
- Repealing the current section 79-7.5 because it contains obsolete provisions that permitted applicants for certification as ATs to become certified without meeting the examination requirements if they meet specified requirements by February 7, 2000.<sup>3</sup>
- Adding a new section 79-7.5 to implement Chapter 733's mandatory continuing education requirements for licensed ATs, which include, but are not limited to, requiring 45 hours of continuing education during each three-year registration period, defining subjects which are acceptable continuing education, and establishing the requirements for becoming a Department approved sponsor of continuing education. This provision will take effect on December 22, 2028, which is the effective date of Education Law §8356-a.
- Amending subdivision (a) of section 59.12 to add athletic training to the list of professions that are required to take training regarding child abuse and maltreatment reporting; and
- Amending subdivision (a) of Section 59.13 to add athletic training to the list of professions required to take training regarding infection control practices.

ASSESSMENT OF PUBLIC COMMENT

Following the publication of a Notice of Emergency Adoption and Proposed Rule Making in the State Register on December 24, 2025, the State Education Department received the following comments on the proposed regulation:

1. COMMENT: A group of New York State Athletic Trainers criticized the Department's use of the term "Licensed Professional" in the State Register materials for this proposed rulemaking and proposed correcting the record by replacing the term "Licensed Professional" with "Licensed Athletic Trainer", which is the term used in the statute.

DEPARTMENT RESPONSE: "Licensed Athletic Trainer" is the statutory title for this profession and is the title used in proposed amendment. Accordingly, no changes to this proposed amendment are required.

2. COMMENT: A group of New York State Athletic Trainers proposed adding the following sentence: "[a]n athletic trainer may also, under the supervision of a physician in a corporate setting or industrial-type setting, utilize their skills, education and training to maintain the health, minimize the risk of injury and maximize the safety of those workers."

DEPARTMENT RESPONSE: The proposed sentence cannot be considered as it is too far beyond the scope of the enacted legislation.

3. COMMENT: A group of New York State Athletic Trainers proposed that nurse practitioners, who have 3600 hours or more experience, be allowed to supervise athletic trainers.

DEPARTMENT RESPONSE: The proposed change cannot be considered as it is too far beyond the scope of the enacted legislation.

4. COMMENT: A group of New York State Athletic Trainers proposed the following changes to the statute: “[n]o physician (M.D or D.O) or Nurse Practitioner shall supervise more than four athletic trainers; except that such limitation shall not apply for athletic trainers practicing in secondary schools, institutions of postsecondary education and institutions who support high school athletics (NYSPHSAA and its related organizations). However, should an athletic trainer, for any reason, be unable to find supervision from a local medical provider, he or she may seek supervision from any eligible medical provider within 25-mile radius. That medical provider, if he or she would be willing to provide supervision, can apply for a waiver if the need dictates. A medical provider can supervise up to 10 ATs using this waiver.”

DEPARTMENT RESPONSE: The references to secondary schools and institutions of postsecondary education are already included in the legislation. The concerns expressed about the supervision of ATs in schools and the commenters’ proposed solution to it cannot be considered as they are too far beyond the scope of the enacted legislation. Accordingly, no changes to the proposed amendment are required.

5. COMMENT: A group of New York State Athletic Trainers proposed several amendments to Education Law §§8354 and 8356.

DEPARTMENT RESPONSE: The proposed statutory amendments would require legislative action, which is not within the purview of the Department.

6. COMMENT: A New York State Athletic Trainer Association (AT Association) requested that the Department clarify that “professional athletic organizations” includes organizations such as the National Football League, National Hockey League, National Basketball Association, Major League Baseball, etc., and their subsidiaries. They also request clarification that “dance organizations” includes organizations such as Cirque du Soleil, Rockettes, and Broadway, etc.”).

DEPARTMENT RESPONSE: The proposed amendment’s language is consistent with the statute. The Department does not typically identify specific organizations in a regulation for illustrative purposes. However, Department is willing to collaborate with stakeholders on proposed guidance to the field in this respect.

7. COMMENT: The Athletic Trainers Association requested that a revision be made to the permitted maximum number of self-study hours for mandatory continuing education from 15 hours to 30 hours.

DEPARTMENT RESPONSE: The 15-hour maximum self-study requirement for mandatory continuing education is contained in statute. As such, it can only be modified by the legislature.
