

New York State Perkins V State Plan

Overview and Revision
November 2024

New York State
EDUCATION DEPARTMENT
Knowledge > Skill > Opportunity

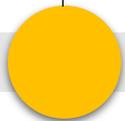

History of Perkins and the State Plan

Elmira Vocational School ~ Chemung County Historical Society*

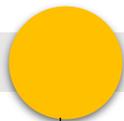

Timeline

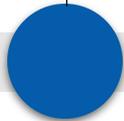

Late 1990s to early 2000s: Focus shifted to skill-based, rigorous career education at the federal level

2018
Perkins V is reauthorized

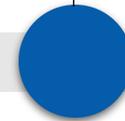

2019 - 2020
Perkins V Transition Plan and Perkins 4-Year State Plan were submitted and approved

2021
State Determined Performance Levels (SDPLs) revised in response to COVID

2024
Revised Perkins V State Determined Performance Levels submitted and approved by USDOE

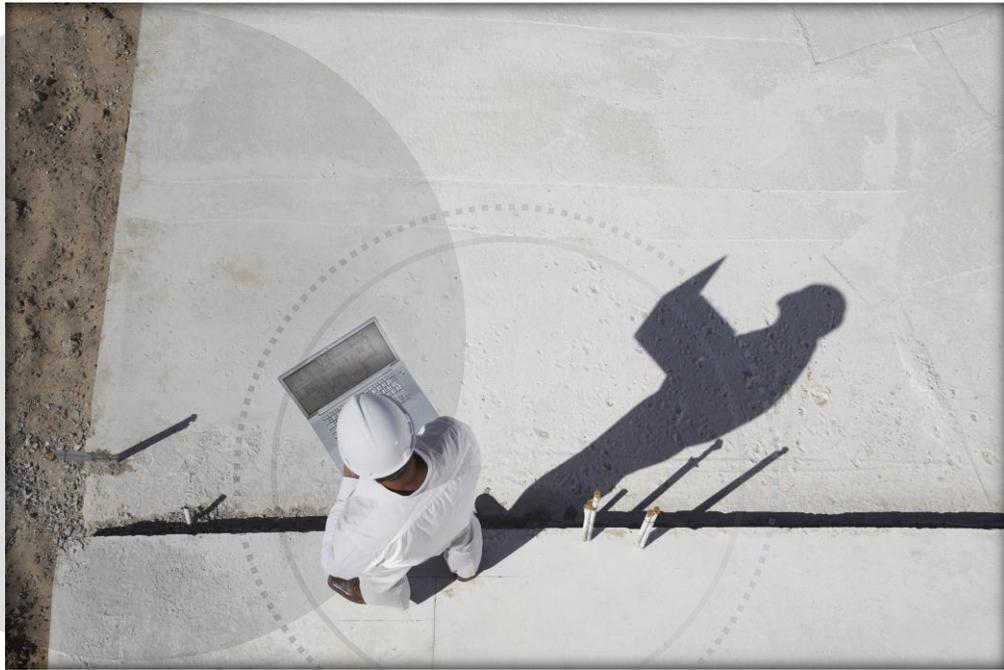

May 2025
Submission of Revised State Plan to USDOE

 Federal

 State

State Plan Options for 2025-2026

Option 1: A new four-year State Plan covering FY 2025-29

Option 2: A revised State Plan and budget for FY 2025

Decision Making Process

Did we need a new, four-year State Plan?

What, if any, revisions to the plan needed to be made?

What would be the most effective timeline for any changes?

Stakeholders

Revision Process

CTE CAP meetings
2023- 2024

Consultation with stakeholders

Office of CTE developed revisions based on feedback

Proposed Revisions

Supporting newly NYSEDapproved and/or developing
CTE programs

Supporting middle level CTE

Next Steps

- 1 Public Hearings
 - Tuesday, November 12, 2024
 - Tuesday, December 3, 2024
 - Tuesday, December 17, 2024
- 2 Presentation of final State Plan revisions to the Board of Regents in March 2025
- 3 Submission of State Plan to USDOE in May 2025

Highlights

- Professional learning opportunities for educators
- Research conducted on barriers to CTE access for students with disabilities
- Postsecondary opportunities for prospective CTE educators
- Resource documents

Questions?

