

Table 1.A. States reporting offering CBT for their K-12 Statewide Assessments

State	CBT Grades/Subjects	Computer adaptive
Arkansas
Connecticut	Only for students with special needs.
Delaware	Online only for Reading, Math, Science, and Social Study for grade level tests; paper pencil only for students needing accommodations; also some of the EOC tests this year.	✓ <sup>1</sup>
Florida	In 2011-2012 computer only for G6 & G10 Reading, Reading and Math retake, and 4 EOC tests.
Georgia	10 EOC tests; most online and paper pencil only during the main administrations.
Hawaii	Online only for grade level and high school tests.	✓ <sup>1</sup>
Idaho	Online only for G3-G8 and G10 in Reading, Language usage, and Math; G5, G7, and G10 in Science; Exit exam retest for students in G11 and G12, and for students in G9 as practice.	✓ <sup>2</sup>
Indiana	Both for grade level tests in Reading, Math, Science, and Social study and 3 EOC tests.
Kansas	Most online for grade level and high school tests; paper pencil only to students with accommodations.
Kentucky	EOC multiple choice items.
Louisiana	Lower grades paper-pencil; higher grades most online and some paper pencil.
Maryland	Both online and paper pencil for G5 & G8 Science and EOC tests.
Massachusetts	Only for students with disability or a small portion of English learners.
Minnesota	Both online and paper pencil for grade level and high school Math; Science online only.	✓ <sup>3</sup>
Mississippi	EOC tests. The old curriculum online and the new one paper pencil.
Missouri	Online only for all EOC assessments in 2011-2012 school year.
Nebraska	Both online and paper pencil except for G4 writing in 2012; online only starting next year.
Nevada	G5 and G8 Writing
New Hampshire	Writing and Science for students with accommodation needs.
North Carolina	EOC tests.
Oklahoma	G7 Geography, G8 Reading and Math, EOC tests are primary computer delivery.
Oregon	Online only for Reading, Mathematics, Science, and Social Studies; also online for English learners and students with individual education plans (IEP).	✓
Rhode Island	Writing; new pilot study in spring of 2011.
South Carolina	Both for 4 EOC tests in 2011-2012 school year.
Tennessee	Higher grade tests.
Texas	Both online and paper pencil for EOC in 2012 for the new testing system.
Utah	Most computer based for Language Arts, Math, Science, and Writing; end of grade for elementary and EOC for secondary tests.
Vermont	Writing
Virginia	Most online for G6-G7 and high school tests except for students with special needs.
Washington	Both online and paper pencil for G3-G8 Reading and Mathematics, G5 & G8 Science.
West Virginia	Writing

1. Mathematics, reading, and science are adaptive and social studies is not adaptive.
2. NCLB section is fixed form and an "extender" test that is adaptive.
3. Currently the mathematics tests are moving from fixed form towards computer adaptive.

Table 1.B. States reporting that they do not offer CBT for their K-12 Statewide Assessments

Alabama	Maine	Ohio
Alaska	Michigan	Pennsylvania
Arizona	Montana	South Dakota
California	New Jersey	Wisconsin
Colorado	New Mexico	Wyoming
Illinois	New York
Iowa	North Dakota

Tables from DRAFT report (March 5, 2012): Transition to computer-based assessments literature review. A report completed for the New York State Educational Department by Educational Testing Service, Contract # C008328.